

Mini Slack

I. Introduction

I want to build a communication application like slack between students and teachers. They can send messages using their account and manage them. This application provide appointment that students are able to have a face-to-face communication with teachers, including selecting proper time slot and different teachers and managing the appointments. Moreover, teachers have the right to manage students. Students and teachers can update their password and basic information.

II. Example

